- 11:20 pm GaryBrannigan: Some areas offer other enrichment options: after school, weekends, summers fro gt kids #gtchat
- 11:30 pm ljconrad: Can public schools adequately address gifted ed? #gtchat
- 11:48 pm DeborahMersino: Sigh. RT @Frazzlld Mixed ability classes, no gt teacher training, no gt ed system. How do Irish kids survive school?! #gtchat
- 11:48 pm marynabadenhors: @ljconrad I agree. You need gifted to teach gifted. Yet the private sector pays more for the gifted than education. #gtchat
- 11:48 pm asynchschrfsnd: @marynabadenhors and as someone pointed out to me today, school now is way worse (needs not met) for these kids than when we grew up #gtchat
- 11:49 pm Frazzlld: @GaryBrannigan If gt kids don't socialise with other gt kids, they too often get labelled as having social skills deficits #gtchat
- 11:49 pm DeborahMersino: @GaryBrannigan - Often the social-emot component impacts the cognitive learning, b/c untrained teachers don't understand. #gtchat
- 11:49 pm jofrei: agree @cybraryman1 re @marynabadenhors need a well trained gifted teacher to teach GT. #gtchat plus empathy and passion for learning
- 11:50 pm DeborahMersino: RT @Dazzlld @Frazzlld They have us to fight their corner, that's how! #gtchat <=== That's right!! Research, research, persuasion, marketing!
- 11:50 pm marynabadenhors: Private sector pays more for the gifted than education. Kids are our greatest asset, so much leadership ability just left dormant. #gtchat
- 11:50 pm DeborahMersino: Please let's commit to not letting "ability grouping" alone suffice for GT education in this country or any country! #gtchat
- 11:51 pm danyelwierson: #gtchat social/emotional is hard to "teach." I like building confidence through recognizing talents and creativity talents and creativity.

- 11:51 pm DazzlId: So if we manage to change things in Ireland, should we go for ability grouping? Is that the same as tracking? #gtchat
- 11:51 pm Ijconrad: 40 yrs ago I had early entrance, hs- indep. studies, choice of 4 Eng classes a yr - my kids didn't get this! #gtchat
- 11:51 pm cybraryman1: @jofrei I was thinking of adding passion and empathy Thanks for adding them! #gtchat
- 11:51 pm jofrei: RT @DeborahMersino: Teachers who don't understand asynchrony, OEs & such aren't as likely to serve #gifted as powerfully. Training = essential! #gtchat
- 11:51 pm DeborahMersino: All countries need well-trained GT educators, who can spend AT LEAST a portion of the day with our #gifted learners. #gtchat They see them!
- 11:51 pm DazzlId: @DeborahMersino Think you just answered my last question!! #gtchat
- 11:51 pm DeborahMersino: RT @marynabadenhors: Private sector pays more for the gifted than education. Kids are our greatest asset, so much leadership ability just left dormant. #gtchat

- 11:52 pm danyelwierson: #gtchat daughter at PG school where nearly all the students have varying degrees of "social" deficiencies. They love that about each other.
- 11:52 pm DeborahMersino: @DazzlId - It's a start...but the highest-level needs GT trained educator instructing. #gtchat
- 11:52 pm graingered: @DeborahMersino Yeah, we wouldn't want 2 recognize diversity among our children, or the lessons learned from differences among them #gtchat
- 11:53 pm GaryBrannigan: It's not easy to understand what is going on in the mind of a gt kid. #gtchat
- 11:53 pm DeborahMersino: @graingered - You once again are misinterpreting/misrepresenting my position. #gtchat (not the case...)
- 11:54 pm cybraryman1: @eagledawg Yes, that is why I included "well trained" gifted teachers. #gtchat
- 11:54 pm TeaLiterati: @GaryBrannigan re: mind of gt kid---so true! they think so differently. #gtchat
- 11:54 pm DazzlId: @graingered Our kids learn very early on how different they are, we try to help them find THEIR place in the world #gtchat
- 11:54 pm cybraryman1: RT @GaryBrannigan: It's not easy to understand what is going on in the mind of a gt kid. #gtchat

- 11:55 pm TeaLiterati: @DeborahMersino dogged persistence in advocating! #gtchat
- 11:55 pm DeborahMersino: @graingered - When actual cognitive learning takes a complete back seat, no, I would be compelled to argue many other ave. exist. #gtchat
