- 4:22 pm DeborahMersino: @dididrama - Really? Wow - I thought we had it rough! #gtchat
- 4:22 pm cybraryman1: GT teachers should connect their students individually to scientists & have them collaborate. Use tech to accomplish this #gtchat
- 4:22 pm MrsThorne: Lots of science at my school (UK), and opps to take triple science at GCSE to promote uptake post-16. It's going well for them #gtchat

- 11:09 pm LesLinks: @DeborahMersino this is not me... I can't do this.. I am not good enough. they think I am a bad person so I must not be gifted #gtchat
- 11:09 pm deepwaterscoach: There are many components to the mistaken identity. There's not realizing we're gifted & that many of our challenges r b/c of that. #gtchat
- 11:09 pm liinerdette: Hi all, I'm a GT, re-discovering it as an adult. And @LesLinks... I have definitely felt impostor syndrome...often. #gtchat

- 11:16 pm lilnerdette: RT @deepwaterscoach: Being "too much" of anything--energetic, passionate, intense, smart, emotional, divergent-thinking, etc. #gtchat
- 11:16 pm GaryBrannigan: People do not understand giftedness, except through products created #gtchat
- 11:17 pm LesLinks: @deepwaterscoach can be catastrophic.. as makes one doubt oneself.. which is so inherently important to 'gifted' psychy... #gtchat
- 11:17 pm DeborahMersino: @DeepWatersCoach - Just speaking the truth. Your point about "too much" is vital as well. How often that gets uttered in counseling! #gtchat
- 11:17 pm lilnerdette: I think if my teachers & parents were able to see the emotional sides of being gifted, I'd be a diff. person. SO important! #gtchat
- 11:18 pm GaryBrannigan: I think it is important for kids to get a chance to demonstrate their gifts #gtchat
- 11:18 pm DeborahMersino: @GaryBrannigan - Agree. Often, others think of abstract "label" sought for superiority vs. seeing it as a tool for learning. #gtchat

- 11:19 pm lilnerdette: @LesLinks haha, you'll have to explain the Stoogie phenomenon to me. :-)
#gtchat
- 11:19 pm deepwaterscoach: @LesLinks I agree. I think our inherent sensitivity makes us pick up on the most subtle messages that we're "not ok." And we buy it. #gtchat
- 11:19 pm LesLinks: @GaryBrannigan this is true... as well as given space to 'ramble on' about it... more listening, less others talking... #gtchat
