- 4:07 pm jofrei: Q1 Policies are different in each Australian state and in different school systems #gtchat
- 4:07 pm MaryStGeorge: Hi, here from NZ at 5 am. #gtchat
- 4:07 pm GiftedPhoenix: @Begabungs #gtchat Do they produce a written statement of what they want to achieve? And do they meet it?
- 4:08 pm GiftedPhoenix: @MaryStGeorge Hello NZ - you have a 2 hour advantage over Jo it seems! #gtchat
- 4:08 pm jofrei: @MaryStGeorge Hi Mary! #gtchat
- 4:08 pm MySpanishTweet: Hi everybody! Learn a language means using it. That's our philosophy and that's how we help people learn Spanish real quick #gtchat
- 4:08 pm GiftedPhoenix: @jofrei In Australia - how different are the policies in practice? Are some recognised as better than others? #gtchat
- 4:09 pm SeaburySchool: @MaryStGeorge 5 am! Give this woman a medal! #gtchat
- 4:09 pm tbrwrn: @jofrei Same here...policies (for teacher training requirements/definitions/implementation plans/etc) differ by state/district #gtchat
- 4:09 pm GiftedJourney: US has not federal policy, each state does its own (or not), local control means each school district has a lot of...discretion #gtchat

- 4:09 pm Begabungs: @GiftedPhoenix 16 states, all different, all are dancing different cha cha for #gifted kids here...grrr #gtchat
- 4:10 pm GiftedPhoenix: @GiftedJourney How does your state's policy/ your district's policy compare with others that you're aware of? #gtchat
- 4:10 pm jofrei: Q1 Agree with @Begabungs Quality is very variable #gtchat
- 4:10 pm SeaburySchool: At a state level in Washington, we currently have funding for highly capable programs, but individual districts guide programs. #gtchat
- 4:10 pm Begabungs: @GiftedPhoenix They write a lot...all try to say we are doing great job for kids but the reality says...They are not updated #gtchat
- 4:10 pm geraldaungst: @GiftedJourney But it also gives districts flexibility and freedom to individualize and innovate. #flipside #gtchat
- 4:10 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat @Begabungs Is Bavaria's the best policy or not so good?
- 4:10 pm SeaburySchool: Ours varies from district to district, school to school and classroom to classroom. #gtchat
- 4:10 pm ljconrad: @cybraryman1 will check out tonight! Horrible traffic right now! #gtchat
- 4:10 pm padgets: #gtchat Sharon here from Iowa USA HS science teacher been gone awhile....
- 4:11 pm __Quest: @GiftedPhoenix Good = we have a policy, it describes characteristics of EA, and challenges, suggests some approaches. #gtchat
- 4:11 pm GiftedPhoenix: RT @SeaburySchool: At a state level in Washington, we have funds for highly capable programs; individual districts guide programs. #gtchat
- 4:11 pm tbrwn: @GiftedPhoenix Vastly different policies & practices. Not even sure we share a definition...is NAGC's accepted US-wide? (not sure) #gtchat
- 4:11 pm cybraryman1: RT @geraldaungst: @GiftedJourney But it also gives districts flexibility and freedom to individualize and innovate. #flipside #gtchat
- 4:11 pm Begabungs: @GiftedPhoenix hmmm...To be honest? Not so good :-(#gtchat
- 4:11 pm geraldaungst: @tbrwn No, NAGC definition is not universal. #gtchat
- 4:11 pm SeaburySchool: Teachers here must fight against previous mandates and often have to lose creativity in classrooms to teach to tests/standards. #gtchat
- 4:12 pm jofrei: @GiftedPhoenix @jofrei Some states have Opportunity Classes or Select Entry Accelerated Learning Schools #gtchat
- 4:12 pm __Quest: @GiftedPhoenix Q1 bad=suggested approaches are vague, hard to translate to practise, most teachers aren't aware of & haven't read it #gtchat
- 4:12 pm SeaburySchool: Hard to find time/room for exploration. We have many public school teachers apply here to take a pay hit but gain flexibility. #gtchat
- 4:12 pm GiftedPhoenix: @tbrwn #gtchat Is there a sense that NAGC's models represent good practice or not universally?
- 4:12 pm GiftedJourney: NAGC's State of the States Report: <http://bit.ly/eB60Rb> #gtchat
- 4:12 pm SeaburySchool: Very frustrating for teachers. #gtchat

- 4:12 pm geraldaungst: @SeaburySchool Which is something I would be concerned about if federal govt got too involved in gifted ed. #gtchat
- 4:12 pm cybraryman1: Q1 My question is: Should there be national/state policies or local ones? #gtchat
- 4:12 pm Ron_Peck: Hi everyone! Ron from Southern Oregon.I teach Social Studies and I'm lurking while working on blog and sachat stuff. :) #gtchat
- 4:13 pm GiftedPhoenix: RT @cybraryman1: Q1 My question is: Should there be national/state policies or local ones? #gtchat

- 4:13 pm Begabungs: @GiftedPhoenix some areas in North of Germany is better than here in Bavaria #gtchat
- 4:13 pm padgets: #gtchat WHat are we chatting about?
- 4:13 pm jofrei: Q1 Some states just give a slight nod towards gifted ed. - some have complete policies #gtchat
- 4:13 pm Begabungs: RT @SeaburySchool: Very frustrating for teachers. #gtchat
- 4:13 pm GiftedPhoenix: Hello Oregon and Iowa and anyone else I've missed! #gtchat
- 4:13 pm geraldaungst: @cybraryman1 Local control of ed is a founding principle of American ed. Not necessarily true elsewhere, of course. #gtchat
- 4:13 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat Today's topic is about designing the perfect state/national policy for #gifted education
- 4:13 pm DazzlId: Hi all, Karen dropping in from Ireland, hope to get the second half-hour with you all #gtchat
- 4:14 pm Ron_Peck: I think states need a strong gifted education policy that gives relevance and structure to local districts. #gtchat
- 4:14 pm SeaburySchool: RT @tbrwn: @GiftedPhoenix Vastly different policies & practices. Not even sure we share a definition...is NAGC's accepted US-wide? #gtchat
- 4:14 pm __Quest: In Ireland worst aspect to policy is that there is no clear legal requirement to implement and no associated resources. #Gtchat
- 4:14 pm tbrwn: @GiftedPhoenix @geraldaungst Nope...NAGC (in my opinion) represents good practice but not accepted nationwide. Hindrance? unsure #gtchat
- 4:14 pm geraldaungst: @tbrwn @giftedjourney I fully agree, but hesitate to encourage fed govt to define/drive what gifted ed should look like. #gtchat
- 4:14 pm jofrei: I have just updated my Schools page about this <http://www.giftedresources.org/gr/schools.htm> #gtchat
- 4:14 pm __Quest: @DazzlId Hi Karen #Gtchat
- 4:14 pm cybraryman1: @Ron_Peck Very good point #gtchat
- 4:15 pm geraldaungst: @tbrwn @giftedjourney "Standardized gifted education" is what would likely result...and it is an oxymoron. #gtchat
- 4:15 pm Begabungs: a very pushy ed system here...very performance oriented system...no time, no money, nothing for gifted kids here #gtchat
- 4:15 pm GiftedJourney: @GiftedPhoenix We have GT mandate in CO but not really funded. My district is trying hard. Others in same metro area pay lip service #gtchat
- 4:15 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat OK, so varying degrees of contentedness with current policies Q2. what are the key shortcomings?
- 4:15 pm Begabungs: Being gifted does not necessarily mean being efficient. Every child has potential & need support to achieve his/her fullest ability. #gtchat
- 4:15 pm geraldaungst: @GiftedJourney Gifted is an unfunded mandate in PA as well. Similar range of effort, also. #gtchat
- 4:16 pm Ron_Peck: w/ the policy & structure local districts cn work 2 ensure more attention, resources & teaching will assist the gifted student pop. #gtchat
- 4:16 pm cybraryman1: RT @Begabungs: ...Every child has potential & need support to achieve his/her fullest ability. #gtchat
- 4:16 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat Re Q2 I suppose I should say - what are the shortcomings apart from lack of funding?
- 4:16 pm 2EBiz: RT @Begabungs: Being gifted does not necessarily mean being efficient. Every child has potential & need support to achieve his/her fullest ability. #gtchat

Transcript for #gtchat - What the Hasht...

- 4:15 pm geraldaungst: @geraldaungst agreed. Keeping govt out of the conversation would be (in my opinion) beneficial. #GTCHAT
- 4:16 pm geraldaungst: @Begabung @cybraryman1 Is it necessarily the school's responsibility to help students achieve fullest ability? What abt parents? #gtchat
- 4:17 pm DazzlId: We are essentially starting from scratch in Ireland, so we may be able to take lessons from other countries on board #gtchat
- 4:17 pm MaryStGeorge: #gtchat q2 doesn't generate shared understanding due to lack of definition
- 4:17 pm GiftedJourney: @geraldaungst "Standardized gifted education"is an oxymoron." TRUE! But we want individualization to be standard practice #gtchat
- 4:17 pm geraldaungst: @GiftedJourney Yes! Standard practice does not have to mean standardized practice. :) #gtchat
- 4:17 pm DazzlId: Q2 Lack of specific and comprehensive teacher training #gtchat
- 4:17 pm cybraryman1: @geraldaungst In utopia there would be a joint partnership between teacher and parents. #gtchat
- 4:17 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat A #gifted policy needs to define who it's for, but they can be very different populations?
- 4:18 pm tbrwn: @GiftedPhoenix the general lack of definition--accepted nationally/internationally--is detrimental. what @marystgeorge said :) #gtchat
- 4:18 pm __Quest: @DazzlId Karen - would you consider the NCCA guidelines on EA as policy or not really, since it doesn't have legal status? #Gtchat
- 4:18 pm MaryStGeorge: back when we had prof dev money, half it would be spent getting to a shared definition at each school #gtchat
- 4:18 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat Q2 - Are policies in your experience sufficiently specific and SMART about what they seek to achieve?
- 4:18 pm __Quest: RT @DazzlId: Q2 Lack of specific and comprehensive teacher training #Gtchat
- 4:19 pm geraldaungst: @tbrwn But govt intervention has protected special ed student rights/needs. Not all necessarily good, but overall I believe so. #gtchat
- 4:19 pm tbrwn: @DazzlId Yep! training of Ts (preservice to veterans) is most vital...let's toss in admins, too. #gtchat
- 4:19 pm Begabung: Q2 :-(#gtchat
- 4:19 pm geraldaungst: @GiftedPhoenix Policies can be too specific, actually. Need a balance. #gtchat
- 4:20 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat @geraldaungst Can you give an example of where that's been detrimental?
- 4:20 pm __Quest: @GiftedPhoenix No - not sufficiently SMART / specific. Lots of jargon type phrases, no clear measurables IMO. #Gtchat
- 4:20 pm padgets: #gtchat why doesn't sped rules apply to gifted kids in terms of needs resources and proper curriculum?
- 4:20 pm MaryStGeorge: q2 #gtchat some were, many weren't. Ed review office found many schools had no policy
- 4:20 pm Begabung: in this system only gifted kids with good grades and good performance are welcome...no place for other gifted kids #gtchat
- 4:20 pm tbrwn: @geraldaungst Concur...am thinking more of using an organization (nagc, maybe) to lay solid foundation for states to build upon #gtchat
- 4:20 pm GiftedJourney: @cybraryman1 @geraldaungst Partnership w/students too! They must be invested! #gtchat
- 4:21 pm teacher6th: RT @padgets: #gtchat why doesn't sped rules apply to gifted kids in terms of needs resources and proper curriculum?
- 4:21 pm SeaburySchool: @geraldaungst Yep, I completely get that - just wish there was a way to ensure funds so we don't have the same fight over and over.. #atchat

- 4:21 pm jofrei: RT @tbrwn: @DazzlId Yep! training of Ts (preservice to veterans) is most vital...lets toss in admins, too. Yes! #gtchat
- 4:21 pm cybraryman1: @GiftedJourney I thought of students when I wrote that. 140 character problem #gtchat
- 4:21 pm __Quest: @__Quest @GiftedPhoenix with result that it's hard to see here that policy has had ANY effect at all. #Gtchat
- 4:21 pm MaryStGeorge: @padgets we have been in and out of the #sped umbrella, advantages and disadvantages #gtchat
- 4:21 pm GiftedPhoenix: #gtchat Q2 leads on to Q3. What kind of SMART objectives would you want to see specified? Make them SMART!
- 4:21 pm geraldaungst: @GiftedPhoenix Onerous bureaucratic requirements cost communities a great deal of money, for example. #gtchat
- 4:21 pm Begabungs: They are proud of PISA result but not interested to do something for emotional needs of gifted kids #gtchat
- 4:22 pm geraldaungst: @GiftedPhoenix I get that it is a necessary evil, though, to a point. Ends up protecting kids, but can get lost in the paperwork. #gtchat
- 4:22 pm padgets: @MaryStGeorge #gtchat very true but it would be a way to ensure our kids all of them get what they need
- 4:22 pm GiftedPhoenix: @geraldaungst #gtchat IMO a bad policy is one focused on bureaucracy and not on achieving real outcomes for learners!
